Description

An attractive oriental three-fold silk screen or room divider. Having a large central screen flanked either side by two smaller panels. The upper glazed section with the most wonderful silk embroidered kimono. The lower section being formed of panelled timber. The outer frame is both elegant and subtle in design. The gold silk contrasts well against the darker wood. The screen can be used as a dressing screen, room divider or for purely decorative purposes. Could also work well in a pub, club, restaurant, commercial or retail space. Outer screens measure 48 cm each and the inner screen is 90cm in width.
