Description

A high quality George III style coffee pot, having a pear shaped body with a gadrooned - type design to the base and the edge of the lid and finished with a twisted finial. The pot has a large flamboyantly decorated spout and a finely shaped handle. This coffee pot is copied from a 1770 design (in the manner of Charles Wright) and was made in 1978 by the renowned master silversmith Richard Moore of Sheffield. This piece is a limited edition in which only four were ever made. Overall the coffee pot is in fantastic condition.
