Description

This is a tall antique side cabinet. An English, mahogany drawing room cabinet or bedside nightstand, dating to the Regency period, circa 1820. Appealing Regency cabinetry with rich colour. Displaying a desirable aged patina. Select mahogany shows fine grain interest. Deep russet hues throughout its wax polish finish. Deep, tiered top with bold, continuous edge moulding. Unusual trapezoid field panel to the cabinet door. Upper drawer dressed with a grand, lion's head mask drop handle. Inset, working iron lock to side — key present. Opens to shelved interior with adjustable position. Raised upon a stout continuous plinth. This is an attractive antique side cabinet with good proportion and fine Regency period taste. Solid joints and construction, delivered waxed, polished and ready for the home.
