Description

A very attractive mahogany 18th century elbow chair. The back splat is very fine and the top rail has lovely fluted scrolls. The arms also terminate in lovely scroll detail. The edges of the chair are decorated and the legs have little corner brackets. This is a finely constructed and carved piece. Take a look at the photos. It is in excellent condition with no old breaks. The widest dimension is across the arms which is 60cm. The seat is 56cm across the front.
