Description

Gents 1960s Garrard wrist watch. The watch has a good quality Swiss 17-jewel ETA movement which is working nicely. The watch measures 34mm diameter excluding the winding crown and the lugs. The case is stainless steel. There is a surface scratch to the bezel but overall the front looks good to the naked eye. There is some scratching to the back where it looks like a tool has slipped in the past. The lens is in lovely condition. The dial is signed with the name of the original retailer of the watch, Garrard. Garrards was founded in 1735 by George Wickes. They designed, manufactured and retailed luxury jewellery, silver and watches. The company is still trading today and as well as having their headquarters in Mayfair, London, they also have a presence in Harrods, London, Geneva, Lebanon, Qatar, Dubai, Moscow and Hong Kong. Garrard was the Crown Jeweller of the United Kingdom, charged with the upkeep of the British Crown Jewels from 1843 to 2007. The dial is in lovely original condition with original hands and seconds sweep. A new leather strap has been fitted. The watch comes in a vintage Garrard presentation box.
