Description

Victorian inlaid walnut side cabinet This Victorian inlaid walnut side cabinet was made circa 1870. It is rare to have a walnut inlaid top as usually this type of cabinet has a marble top and mirror to the central door. This version is not only rare but far more desirable due to these features. The shaped walnut top with box stringing and attractive patterns at the corners. It is fitted a central arched panel door with well-carved moulding that opens to reveal a full storage area with a shelf. The panel door with fine inlays matching those elsewhere on this beautiful cabinet. There is a glazed door to each end that each open to allow you to display items on the display shelves that are lined in yellow satin material. Imagine the joy of ownership this will bring you in your home. 134cms wide 52ins 48.5cms deep 19ins 96cms high 37 3/4ins All Measurements are approximate, whilst we take care in measuring there may at times be a very slight difference. This Victorian inlaid walnut side cabinet has the Hingstons Antiques brand guarantee plate. This gives you the peace of mind that it meets the quality and expectations you expect when purchasing from Hingstons Antiques. This Vic...
