Description

Regency gilt overmantle mirror This Regency gilt overmantle mirror was made circa 1825 It has triple mercurial plate mirrors that have the lovely blue grey period tinge to them. The gilt frame with acanthus leaf frieze and carved wood barley twist columns with acanthus leaf capitals and rosettes above. Under the breakfront cornice there are the gilded wooden balls. Under the gilding there is yellow ochre and red bole. We have sympathetically restored this to bring it to this wonderful period hue. Our specialist gilder who has worked on the Queen's Royal collection at locations such as Windsor Castle has painstakingly worked on this Regency gilt overmantle mirror to bring it to its current state. Imagine how good this Regency gilt overmantle mirror will look in your drawing room and how it will complete your interior. 148cms wide 58 1/2ins 20cms deep max at cornice 7 3/4ins 76cms high 30ins All Measurements are approximate, whilst we take care in measuring there may at times be a very slight difference. This Regency gilt overmantle mirror has the Hingstons Antiques brand guarantee plate. This gives you the peace of mind that it meets the quality and expectations you ex...
