Description

This is an antique needlepoint stretcher. An English, mahogany adjustable tapestry frame, dating to the late Victorian period, circa 1900. Adjustable frame ideal for seated or standing use. Displaying a desirable aged patina. Select mahogany shows fine grain interest. Rich russet hues show beneath the wax polish finish. Up-stands topped with small finials, over gilt foliate medallions. Tapestry frame with adjustment along the vertical plane. The frame rotating to standing or seated positions. Lower stretcher rail with Greek relief pattern. Raised upon two pairs of slipper feet with carved leaf detail to the knee. This is a fascinating antique needlepoint stretcher, offering decorative and crafting appeal for those of a traditional, creative taste. Delivered waxed, polished and ready for to be enjoyed.
