Description

Good example of an antique pine Cricket Table of traditional form with three legs, a circular top and a shelf below. It dates from the late 19th century and is in good condition with a nice rich colour and aged patina. There are signs of use and age and old marks in the top but no major damages and it a solid sturdy piece. It has been lightly waxed and it is ready for use. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions please ask. Free local delivery within 10 miles of Ashburton. London £50.
