Description

This is a stunning large antique French Sevres "Bleu Royale" hand-painted porcelain and ormolu mounted vase circa 1870 in date, later converted into a lamp. The ovoid porcelain body is painted with gilt-framed panels depicting finely painted courting couple scenes on one side, a landscape on the other on a cobalt blue ground which is mounted on a circular laurel leaf cast ormolu base. Add an elegant touch to any room in your home. Condition: In excellent condition with no chips, cracks or signs of repair, re-wired and pat tested please see photos for confirmation of condition. It is from Chantilly that a cadre of workers migrated to the Chateau de Vincennes near Paris to form a larger porcelain manufactory in 1738. French King Louis XV, perhaps inspired by his rumoured relationship with mistress Madame de Pompadour, took an intense interest in porcelain and moved the operation ...
