Description

This is a superb antique Medieval Revival gilt brass altar Corpus Christi of Christ crucified on a cross bottony, circa 1890 in date. The quality of this exquisite church brass altarpiece is just as impressive as it's size. The details in the corpus combined with the Medieval Revival elements on this large cross make it very impressive. The Corpus Christi is very life-like, wearing a flowing linen cloth, his eyes closed and head down-turned. Complemented with the brass plaque at the top inscribed in Latin 'INRI', for 'Iesus Nazarenus Rex Iudaeorum', meaning 'Jesus of Nazareth, King of the Jews'. It stands on a remarkable tripod base cast with suggestive stylized beasts. Pieces like these really are in a class of their own and as such work beautifully anywhere. The craftsmanship is second to none throughout all aspects of this magnificent altar Corpus Christi which is sure to add an unparalleled touch of sacred art to your home. Condition: In excellent condition, please see photos for confirmation.
