Description

A fantastic work of art to see how a few pieces of soft cork material has been meticulously hand sculpted into a realistic scene showing an oriental style house with trees and birds. The detail and quality of work is amazing and to think that these were just tourist pieces for visitors to buy back in the 1930-50's. The display is cased in a black painted wooden cabinet with glass front and back to allow you to look straight through thus keeping dust off.
