Description

A full and unique set of continental porcelain monkey musicians, each seen playing different instruments and with the main keyboard player sitting on a monkey's back. They are all seen in early 18th-century dress, typical of the Roccoco style and 1760's period. All monkey figures are in excellent condition, with no damage or repairs. A colourful and well-glazed set of considerable weight and substantial size. Measurements: Average Height 11 Inches Average Width 5 Inches Keyboard Player Height 11 Inches x Width 8 Ins. A chance to acquire a sought-after group, each being hand-painted and gilded. We obviously cannot split any of them and have not seen anything on this scale over the years.
