Description

This is an antique games table. An English, mahogany chess table or workstation, dating to the Victorian period, circa 1860. Fine detail and Victorian appeal. Displaying a desirable aged patina. Mahogany shows fine grain interest. Rich hues to the wax polish finish. Elegant chess board inlaid to the top with a diameter of 28cm (11"). Presented in rosewood and satinwood parquetry. Centrally located drawer with a pair of wooden pulls. Deep, lower drawer dressed with original silk pouch. Raised upon an octagonal tapered stem. Eye-catching quatrefoil base with sinuous arc form. Riding upon a set of four brass castors. This is a charming antique games table, well suited to the study or living room. Solid joints and construction, delivered waxed, polished and ready for the home.
