Description

Exceptional quality Art Deco inlaid walnut bedroom suite by the acclaimed British cabinet makers Maple & Co. c.1925. Comprising a three door combination wardrobe with fitted interior and full length mirror, a dressing table with triple plate mirror and stool, tall boy linen press, single bedside cabinet and a pair of bedroom chairs. Stylish modernist influence design, especially to the unique slope-sided wardrobe. Fabulous cabinet making typical of Maple's, one of the great high end manufacturer's of the Victorian and Edwardian era. Walnut veneers laid in a striking circular pattern across the door and door fronts. With good inlaid detail to the centres whilst the vertical and horizontal elements are veneered in highly figured burr walnut. Fine marquetry inlaid edge mouldings with coloured and contrasting detail against rosewood and ebony ground. Also featuring mother of pearl inlays to the crossbanded borders of the press and wardrobe doors. Nicely shaped and moulded legs in solid walnut. Mahogany drawer linings and ground work. Original ivorine and gilt handles and escutcheons across the suite. Original maker's label for Maple & Co. of London, Paris and Buenos Aires ins...
