Description

A good example of a Victorian writing slope dating from the late 1800s. It is made of solid mahogany with the most beautiful flamed grain and rich colour. It also comes with a working key. The box is fitted with a good quality leather writing surface with a gilt tooled edge. It comes with its original pair of glass inkwells with white metal tops and a pen tray. Both top and bottom sections of the leather surface lift up to reveal extra storage space below. The box is in very good condition for its age with a beautiful patina and displays very nicely. There are some general signs of age and use, some knocks and light scuffs around the box but nothing untoward or detrimental. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions at all please ask. Tracked UK delivery £10
