Description

Fine Georgian 18th Century mahogany bachelor's chest of drawers with wonderful colour and patina. English, George III period, Circa 1770. Superb original untouched colour and patination, standing 3 feet wide, the rectangular mahogany top with a thumb moulded edge over a brushing slide with axe head drops, above four long graduated cockbeaded drawers retaining their original swan neck handles and locks raised on a shaped bracket foot. The finely chosen timbers have gained a wonderful colour and patination with the original handles that are untouched.
