Description

Early C19th Regency period gilt-wood framed overmantel 3-plate 'landscape' mirror. Exceptionally original gilt-wood framed overmantel or chimney-piece mirror with aged and 'foxed' atmospherically 'shot' distressed silver-grey mercury plates. The plates divided by ebonised moulded and reeded slip frames. The gilt-wood frame surround decorated with carved and applied gesso details. The cornice of stepped break-front architectural form. The top frieze and uprights of the ends with moulded half-round fluted columns with decorative foliage decoration. The block terminals with carved square classical-style floral decoration. Raised on original gilded ball feet. The original gilding gently rubbed and worn in places showing minor areas of red gesso ground 'bleeding' through. The reverse with original panelled backboards and fitted a hanging chain fixing. In rare totally original 'as found', fresh-to-market, countryhouse condition. H 30" W 49" D 4" England c.1820
