Description

This is a fine monumental antique mahogany and parcel gilt serving table in the George II manner and dating from the mid 19th Century. The back is decorated with egg and dart moulding and acanthus scrolls. The central bowfront drawer is flanked by a long drawer on each side. The drawers have hand-cut dovetails, are solid mahogany lined and have their original gilt brass handles. It is raised on acanthus leaf decorated cabriole legs terminating in carved lion paw feet. The attention to detail is absolutely fantastic and it is certain to attract attention wherever placed. Condition: In excellent condition having been beautifully cleaned, polished and waxed in our workshops, please see photos for confirmation. Dimensions in cm: Height 114 x Width 232 x Depth 82. Dimensions in inches: Height 44.9 x Width 91.3 x Depth 32.3. Mahogany is probably one of the largest 'families' of hardwood, having many different varieties within its own species. Mahogany has been used for centuries in shipbuilding, house building, furniture making etc and is the core structure of just about every 19th-century vanity box, dressing case or jewellery box. It became more of a Victorian trend to...
