Description

This is a beautiful antique watercolour study 'Water Carrier' by Filippo Indoni, circa 1890. It is the study of a young female figure with water carrier, standing in a street, signed bottom right, in a beautiful glazed gilt frame. The colours are incredibly vibrant for its age and the painting has a beautiful period gilded frame. Filippo Indoni's works are very collectable and can be seen being sold at major auction houses like Bonhams or Christie's. Condition: In excellent condition and ready to hang on your wall. Dimensions in cm: Height 76 x Width 58 x Depth 7. Dimensions in inches: Height 29.9 x Width 22.8 x Depth 2.8. Filippo Indoni (1842 -1908) was a Roman born artist who painted in the Realist style. He often created lively scenes of peasants and lower class people playing, laughing and generally being carefree. Indoni made these formerly forgotten people in the art world shine, while his fellow artists were portraying them in darker themes. Indoni was particularly talented with watercolours, and painted a number of scenes of peasants and country people in watercolor. Unlike many other artists who portray peasants and workers, Indoni's subjects are ge...
