It has a glazed door above a pair of glazed doors, opening to a red damask lined interior with glass shelves. The inlaid marquetry decoration is of the highest quality and is the work of a master craftsman of his day. Add a touch of unparalleled style to your home. Condition: In excellent condition having been beautifully polished and the interior relined in our workshops, please see photos for confirmation. Dimensions in cm: Height 142 x Width 72 x Depth 34. Dimensions in inches: Height 55.9 x Width 28.3 x Depth 13.4. Edwardian Period (1900 - 1910) The Edwardian era saw the beginning of a new century with a new king and a new style of interior design. The heavy, dark, cluttered look of the Victorian era was gone, and in its place, something much lighter and more cheerful. Some of the most famous designers for this era include: Thomas Sheraton - furniture, Louis Comfort Tiffany - lighting, René Lalique - glassware. Edwardian Style This early 20th century style had an eclectic feel to it, and drew from elements of Georgian and Victorian styles.
