Description

George V mahogany pedestal dining table This George V mahogany pedestal dining table was made circa 1930. In the classic Georgian style using the most elegant design of that period the cabinetmakers would have crafted this for a high-end retail outlet for sale to the professional classes. The mahogany top with the fine cross-banding running around the border. The table has one leaf extension to allow for extra diners, and so it makes for a versatile dining table. Closed without the leaf 6 can be seated and with the leaf in place 8 upwards can be sat to the table. Imagine enjoying ownership of this George V mahogany pedestal dining table and the fun you will have entertaining around this dining table. 216cms long 85ins 107cms wide 42ins 162cms closed without the leaf 64ins 72cms high 28 1/4ins Leaf 54cms deep 21 1/2ins All Measurements are approximate, whilst we take care in measuring there may at times be a very slight difference.
