Description

An Antiques French Napoleon III 'toad back' armchair, circa 1870, the shaped button back with three buttons, over scroll arms and a serpentine shaped seat, raised on ebonised supports. Upholstered in cream linen. In excellent condition, the sprung seat is good with no lumps or bumps, the cream linen fabric is very clean apart from one small mark on at the front right - this could probably be removed although I have not attempted it. I can offer a re-covering service if required. Seat height 35cm
