Description

Antique silver Longines pocket watch for Thomas Russell. The watch has a Longines stem-winding movement which is working nicely. The movement is signed T R Russell, 18 Church Street, Liverpool and it has the serial number 370903 which dates it back to 1884. The movement is signed with the earlier Longines logo on the regulator, the later hourglass logo was registered in 1889. The movement is protected by an inner hinged cover. The watch measures 55mm diameter excluding the winding stem and the loop. The case is 935 silver and there are Continental hallmarks inside the two case backs. The case is in very nice condition, just a couple of small patches of unevenness to the edge of the case back but nothing serious at all. The glass lens has light marking and a 2mm chip underneath the edge. The dial is signed T R Russell. It has a short faint hairline running from number 9 but it is difficult to see with the naked eye. There are two chips to the edge of the dial but they are covered by the bezel. Lever set hands. The watch comes in a new presentation box. In 1848, the original Thomas Russell was listed as a watch maker in Liverpool. In 1859, he passed contro...
