Description

A pretty Vintage French commode, circa 1930, in Louis XV style, of oak construction and serpentine outline, with moulded drawers, shaped apron and scroll feet, the drawers with brass handles and escutcheons, later painted in pale blue and with hand painted white/grey faux marble top. This is a good quality commode in excellent condition, the paintwork is slightly more blue in reality than the main photographs, the closest to the true colour is the photograph showing the open drawers.
