Description

A fine beautiful antique French Louis Revival giltwood three panel dressing screen with portrait, circa 1850 in date. The screen features three beautifully carved beaded egg and dart rectangular frames each with gold silk upholstered panels. The shaped tops feature bell flowers and foliate finials, the centre section with a stunning oval oil on canvas portrait painting of a young period lady wearing a blue dress, the frame surmounted with carved cresting of a quiver and flaming torch. Provenance: Horton Lodge, Windsor, Berkshire. Add a superb classical element to any room with this lovely screen. Condition: In excellent condition, please see photos for confirmation.
