Description

A superb antique pair of Grand Tour silver plated bronze Borghese Campana urns, circa 1880 in date. This pair of bronze campana urns are after the Borghese models with classical relief decoration with beaded rims and mythological figures on a pedestal base and square plinth. This high quality hot cast solid bronze was produced using the traditional "lost wax" process, otherwise known as the "cire perdue" method. The craftsmanship is second to none throughout all aspects of this pair and they are sure to add an unparalleled touch of class to your home. Condition: In excellent condition the silver having been replated, please see photos for confirmation. The custom flourished from about 1660 until the advent of large-scale rail transit in the 1840s, and was associated with a standard itinerary. It served as an educational rite of passage. Though primarily associated with the British nobility and wealthy landed gentry, similar trips were mad...
