Description

These are a pair of fantastic condition c1900 cufflink with original faux shell leather box. The cufflinks come from a sought after assay office, Chester which was subject to closure after 1962, so they are such a rare find to be found in such a brilliant condition. The cufflinks have been beautifully crafted foliage design with a really strong three link connection to the other link. WE can only assume that the were assayed by George Muir Limited EST d.1847 in d. 1900 The cufflinks measure 1.9cm Length x 1.2cm Width 2.0cm Depth each, weighing a combine heavy 7.02g.
