Description

This is an elegant antique chiffonier. An English, mahogany sideboard cabinet, dating to the Victorian period, circa 1880. Beautifully figured with attractive craftsmanship. Displaying a desirable aged patina. Select mahogany offers superb grain interest. Rich russet hues captivate beneath the wax polish finish. Shaped upstand supported by turned balusters with cockbeaded back panel. Thick sideboard offering a generous rest for serving trays and drinks. Recessed drawer with a dashing concave fascia. Decorative scrolled corbel frame the pair of cabinet drawers. Strikingly figured doors with gentle field panelling and small inset brass lined lock — key absent. Wide single shelf to the interior well sized for wines, spirits or dinner services. Standing upon a stout plinth base beneath a rolled pedestal foot. This is an alluring and beautifully finished antique chiffonier, set to spark conversation at dinner parties or for enhancing comfortable family lounges. Solid joints and construction, delivered waxed, polished and ready for the home. Dimensions: Max Width: 106.5cm (42") Max Depth: 42.5cm (16.75") Max Height: 125cm (49.25").
