Description

A magnificent antique Victorian period partners desk in solid mahogany. This dates from around the 1860-80 period. It is of extremely high quality, and is a large and impressive piece. The front has loads of drawers and storage as you would expect, and the back side has two lockable panelled cupboards, this comes with keys. The mahogany has a beautiful colour and rich patina. The top has just been re-leathered, hand coloured and gold tooled. This partners desk sits on plinth bases, with casters underneath & it comes apart into three sections for easy transportation. It's a good working desk & has a generous sized knee-hole space. We just had this recently French polished, it is in fantastic condition for its age.
