

SA765585

Engraving of Hatfield House, Hertfordshire by R. Reeve after J. Buckler, 1815

Price

SoldItem Reference: SA765585*Date of manufacture: 19th Century

Dimensions

Height = 56 cm (22.0")

Width = 59 cm (23.2")

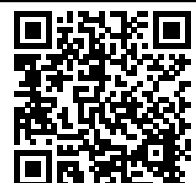

Description

A copperplate engraving of Hatfield House, Hertfordshire by R. Reeve after John Buckler (1770-1851) British artist and architect. Showing a view of the house with figures and sheep in parkland. With the Arms, Crest, Supporters and Motto of Cecil, Marquess and Earl of Salisbury and inscribed in the plate: 'From a drawing in the collection of Thos. Lister Parker Esq.re of Browseholme Hall, Yorkshire. To the Most Noble JAMES CECIL, MARQUIS OF SALISBURY, K.G. This North East View of HATFIELD HOUSE, HERTFORDSHIRE is by permission humbly dedicated by his Lordship's much obliged and devoted Servant, John Buckler' Drawn by J.Buckler. Engraved by R.Reeve. Published April 1815, by J. Buckler, Bermondsey, Surrey. Within original Hogarth fame. 56cm x 49.5cm including frame

Seller Details

Hand of Glory

Hand of Glory Antiques 34 Market Place Chippenham Wiltshire
SN15 3HP United Kingdom

Tel: 07867 305451 or 01249 447478

International Tel: +44 7867 305451 or +44 1249 447478