Description

A beautiful French porcelain lamp with hand painted scenes and delicate gilt decoration, dating from 1850. The lamp features a pair of oval panels, one with a hand painted classical deity in the clouds and the other painted with wild flowers, each framed with elaborate gilt decoration and each with grotesque mask head handles. This was originally a vase that has been skillfully converted into this superb lamp. Condition: Offered in excellent condition for its age with some rubbing to the gilt, in full working order.
