Description

This is an antique set of 6 dining chairs. An English, mahogany and leather King chair and suite of 5 seats, dating to the Early Victorian period, circa 1850. A dining suite of fine antique distinction. Displaying a desirable aged patina and of appreciable good order. Select mahogany shows fine grain interest and dark russet hues. Seat pads upholstered in quality, comfortable leather with an inviting palette of olive green. Elegant King chair for the head of the table, with sinuous shaped arms and scrolled knuckles. Top rails arch gracefully with attractive Chippendale ears. Each chair graced with the dashing pierced lyre back splat, adorned with carved detail. The centrepiece of which, a plume of feathers - evoking the iconography of HRH, the Prince of Wales. Fine chairs offering comfortable, supportive seating - ideal for regular use. Numbered cushions from 1-6 for perfect individual fit. Charming reeded legs to the front with wavy carved knees and gently splayed square sections to rear. United front to back by a H-stretcher, with a smaller stretcher uniting the rear pair. This is a superb antique set of dining chairs, with fine colouration and striking pierced backs. Finished ...
