Description

A stunning original Regency period carver chair, dating from the 1810-20 period. This is beautifully made from solid mahogany, with a leather seat. The condition is excellent for its age, we have given this a light clean, all the wood is sturdy and sound with a stunning patina. The leather upholstery is also in superb condition, this looks like it was fully restored fairly recently by the previous owner. This chair would be ideal for use as a desk chair, among other things.
