Description

Excellent pair of Edwardian silver wine coasters; of circular form with wood bases (with a silver "button" to the centre of each base,) these are fine examples in the Geo.III style of 1770. Wonderful piercing to the sides, a crisp bead pattern to the borders and vacant cartouches. The condition is perfect and the quality is as good as you would expect from this great maker. Sheffield. 1910. William Hutton & Sons. Diameter of each 13.5cm. Please note; the glass decanters shown in our photographs are for display purposes only and not included in this offer.
