Description

A fantastic antique Victorian carved oak chair dated 1869 and signed by the maker. The tall oblong back carved with a stylised willow tree and with a scroll and foliate-carved crest centred on an escutcheon inscribed, J.K.K., 1869, and with monarch head finials above an oblong splat carved with a stylised willow tree within ropetwist uprights over a boarded seat with flower and foliate-carved rails on ropetwist and blocked legs and a serpentine stretcher. A very decorative Gothic chair profusely carved throughout carved to the back is "T. Benn. Fecit." (Fecit being Latin for he made). In very good condition, solid and sturdy it would make a fantastic statement piece. Construction/Wood: Oak Condition Report: Very good condition. Solid and sturdy with good colour and patina. Gap along the seat, solid to sit on. Dimensions Height: 116cm Width: 46cm Depth: 45cm Height to seat: 45cm
