Description

Superb quality large French oak wardrobe c.1910. Breakfronted, the deeper central section with brass rail for full length hanging plus a single drawer in the base. Flanked on both sides with shallower sections with four adjustable shelves in each side. Standing 7'8" tall with a superbly carved cornice with flower garland and laurel leaf detail over the original arch top dressing mirror to the outside of the centre door. Unusual bergere panels to the side doors with further exceptionally well carved detail and original gilded escutcheon plates. Oak panelled sides and a carved plinth raised on short fluted legs. Excellent colour and condition, cleaned and waxed in our workshops. Keys supplied. Note this wardrobe disassembles for delivery – ideal for a room with awkward access. Dimensions: width 78", depth 23½", height 92".
