Description

A fabulous walnut console table with marble top dating from the mid 19th century. The table has a full length drawer concealed in the shaped frieze and is raised on curved supports and an attractively shaped lower platform. The patina and colour are superb, the cabinet maker has skillfully used the grain of the walnut to maximum effect. The condition is very good. This elegant antique console table would be a perfect hall table or would be equally at home in any room. c. 1860 Width: 38" 96.5 cm Depth 17.5" 44.5 cm, Height 33" 84 cm
