Description

Dating from the 18th century, this oak cricket table has a beautifully grained two piece top and galleried lower shelf. The table sits securely on triangular legs. The colour, patina and condition is very good and this charming table is an excellent example of country furniture from the late 1700's. A wonderful timeless table to include in a traditional or contemporary setting. c. 1790 Diameter: 21" 54 cm Height; 26.5" 67 cm
