Description

A good pair of 19th century Chinese porcelain vases and covers with dogs of foo finials. These antique vases bear four character reign marks and are painted in underglaze blue with panels of precious objects surrounded by prunus blossom. The condition is good and the decoration is a good mid blue. A lovely and very decorative pair of baluster form vases to display in any setting. c. 1880 Height 12.75" 32 cm
