Description

George V mahogany twin pillar dining table This solid mahogany twin pillar dining table was made at the start of the 20th century using good mahogany. The table with 2 D-ends and a further 2 leaves to extend the table. The leaves are supported by a pair of supports that are stored under the table and then slide on runners as the table is pulled open. A pair of mahogany turned gun barrel columns with the tripod legs support the table. Each leg is fitted with the wonderful cast brass square toes with the castors under. The table can be used with no leaves or using just one or both extra leaves. It makes for a very versatile dining table to suit the sitting you require as you entertain your family and friends. The advantage of not having a leg to each corner enables you to entertain more people around it. Imagine how wonderful this dining table will look in your dining area as you entertain your family and friends. 259cms long fully extended 102ins 107cms wide 42ins 168cms long without leaves in place 42ins 71cms high 28ins Each extra leaf 45cms 18ins All Measurements are approximate, whilst we take care in measuring there may at times be a very slight difference.
