Description

A pretty antique pine dressing table from Maple & Co dating from the early 20th Century. It has 3 drawers, each with their original chromed handles and above this is a large adjustable mirror. To one side is a chromed rail which has a small curtain on. The table stands on narrow tapering legs with an attractive shaped frieze. It is a very pretty and elegant piece and on the back of the mirror is the original label for "Maple & Co Limited London & Paris". It is in good condition for its age. There are general signs of age and use, some surface marks and small knocks around the legs but nothing detrimental. The chromed handles have tarnished slightly but overall it displays well and is strong and sturdy. It has been cleaned and given a light wax and is ready for use. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask. Nationwide delivery available through our network of reliable couriers.
