Description

A magnificent original vintage 1930's recipe cocktail shaker just back from our silversmith having had all the gold and silver plating professionally restored and polished to create an outstanding example. The shaker incorporates a gilded inner liner with all the ingredients engraved on it. When in use there is an arrow on the outer sleeve which you "dial" to point at the cocktail desired and the ingredients then show through the window. The underside is signed by Napier and two US Patent numbers and also "Also Foreign Patents". This is a large example standing 10 1/2" tall with a diameter measuring 3 7/8" An exceptional addition to the finest of bars. c.1930. Item: 42925
