Description

A superb quality late 19th century inlaid mahogany display cabinet by Maple and Co of London. Of serpentine form and of fine construction in solid mahogany and attractive mahogany veneers. Decorated throughout with inlaid detailing in satinwood and boxwood. With a central glazed door (lockable, key supplied) which opens to access a shelved and lined interior. Flanked by a pair of end cupboards which open to reveal shelved interiors. Sympathetically refinished in our workshops, this stunning cabinet is now offered for sale in excellent condition, ready to go straight into the home. Dimensions: Width 138cms Depth 44cms Height 168cms Maple & Co was established by John Maple, a shopkeeper from Horley, Surrey, who later opened a furniture shop in Tottenham Court Road. However it was his son, John Blundell Maple, who made Maples & Co a success. With exceptional business skills, John B. Maple took over the company while still a young man. By the 1880s they were the largest furniture store in the world, exported their fine furniture to every continent. Maples manufactured their luxury furniture entirely in-house, at a huge modern complex. A timber importer and furniture expo...
