Description

Antique silver Waltham full hunter pocket watch. The watch has a stem-winding movement, seven jewel Traveler grade, which is working nicely. The movement is fully signed and the serial number 10,373,970 dates it back to around 1901. The movement is protected by an inner hinged cover. The watch measures 51mm diameter excluding the winding stem and the loop. The case is silver and there are hallmarks inside the three covers for Birmingham 1907, with a case maker's mark for Aaron Dennison. The Dennison Watch Case Company made the majority of cases for Waltham UK. The case has engine turned detail to both the front and back, and it is in good condition, just a couple of small indentations to the front cover. The difference in dates suggests that the case and movement are not original to each other, but of the same era. The manufacturer of the case is also correct for a Waltham. It could be that a movement replacement was a more economical alternative than a repair at the time. The winding crown pushes in to open the front cover. The acrylic lens is in good condition. The signed dial is in very nice condition with blued steel hands, a subsidiary seconds dial and...
