Description

Possibly one of our all time favourite Art Deco powder bowls is this fine porcelain example, dating to the 1930's and originating from Germany made by Wallendorf Thuringia company. This highly stylised lady is painted in vivid orange and black on the back drop of brilliant white porcelain. Condition is excellent, only flaw to note is a firing crack on one hand which is hardly visible and will have happened in it's manufacture but you do need to search to see it. Part of the half doll family these powder, trinket boxes are highly sort after and collectible, this beauty is a rare find and one we've not come across before. FREE UK DELIVERY About the maker Wallendorf Porcelain is a porcelain manufacturing company which has been in operation since 1764 in Lichte (Wallendorf) in the Thuringian Highlands. Wallendorf is one of the oldest porcelain trademarks in Germany and the whole of Europe.
