Description

George I walnut chest on stand This George I walnut chest on stand was made circa 1720. It was made in 2 parts; the top section is fitted with 2 half width and 3 full width graduated drawers with the original brass handles. The base of the usual form with a box drawer each side of the attractive arched shaped apron, with a slim drawer above this. The whole stands on elegant solid walnut cabriole legs. It has had an interesting well-travelled life. In the last century it was taken to America where it was used in a Pennsylvanian family home and then it was brought back to England by an Anglo-Irish family before we were fortunately offered this. It has now been restored sympathetically and readied for its new life in your home. Imagine how wonderful this will look in your home and the joy of ownership it will bring. This George I walnut chest on stand can be used in many places around your home 109cms wide 43ins 59cms deep 23ins 160cms high 63ins All Measurements are approximate, whilst we take care in measuring there may at times be a very slight difference.
