Description

19thc Yorkshire broad armchair This 19thc Yorkshire broad armchair was made circa 1860 Made from ash with a solid elm seat these chairs make a lovely character chair for a kitchen or lounge. They were made for country and farm estate houses. The appeal of this style of chair adds to their attraction as after hard toil on a farm the owner could sit by the hearth and smoke a pipe as they unwound after the long day. It has been sympathetically cleaned and waxed ready for your home. 115cms high 45ins 69cms deepest 27ins 62cms wide point across the hand grip 24 1/2ins 46cms seat height 18ins 45cms seat depth 17 1/2ins 40cms seat width 16ins All Measurements are approximate, whilst we take care in measuring there may at times be a very slight difference.
