Description

This is one of a number of fine antique stools we were fortunate enough to recently acquire - all of them are in superb restored condition. This English made cabriole-legged example (Circa 1900), in the French style, has an attractive embroidered seat (Circa 1930) - the floral panel has been carefully retained by the upholsterer, when the seat was re-furbished. Sensitive restoration has enhanced and extenuated its elegant mahogany frame.
