Description

Pair of George VI leather wing chairs This pair of Pair of George VI leather wing chairs are covered in hand dyed leather. Being hand dyed is a pointer to the quality and expense of these chairs when they were first made. Normally chairs of this period have cheap pre dyed leather off a roll, whereas these have proper leather hides used in the upholstery process, and the hundreds of brass studs each tapped in meticulously that also adds to the superb look these chairs give. The deep buttoned backs and the shaped wings give these Pair of George VI leather wing chairs the kerbside appeal. The chairs stand on square moulded legs with joining stretchers very much in the classic Georgian style. Imagine relaxing into these chairs while you unwind, they are sure to give you much pleasure of ownership and I suspect family and friends will be keen to try them out!! 111cms high 43 1/2ins 79cms widest point 31ins 84cms deep 33ins 49cms seat height 19ins 56cms seat depth 22ins 48cms seat width 19ins All Measurements are approximate, whilst we take care in measuring there may at times be a very slight difference.
